The [illegible]houses [illegible]gdon, are perfect "havens of refuge" for those old [illegible] whom life's storms have left desirous of a quiet old age. The town is well provided with charitable institutions—Tomkin's Almshouses (erected to provide a home for ten destitute Dissenters), Twitty's Hospital, and Christ's Hospital, the latter being shown in the picture. The architecture of these is very fine, the interior being richly panelled with oak and mullioned windows, resplendent with magnificent stained glass.
